

T-ball

Murray Parks & Recreation is now taking registrations for its T-ball for 4 & 5 year olds who want to learn how to play baseball in a non-threatening, non-competitive program. Boys and girls play together. Participants will learn how to swing a bat, hit a ball off a tee to develop bat speed, learn to throw and field baseballs. This is an excellent starter program to the sport of baseball. Players receive a t-shirt, hat, one ticket to the Salt Lake Bees game, and an award at the end of the season.

COACH PITCH BASEBALL

The next step of progression for baseball is hitting live pitches thrown by coaches or by the pitching machine. Participants will learn batting skills, fielding balls on a dirt infield, base running, throwing, and game strategy. This is a great program to prepare for youth baseball or softball. Major emphasis is on sportsmanship and having fun. Both boys and girls are encouraged to play. Players receive a t-shirt, hat, a ticket to a Salt Lake Bees Game, and an award at the end of the season.
