 - “This Old Murray” workshops – Lori reported that she has been speaking with Bob Yapp and will be contracting him to produce two Zoom meetings to start out the XXXXX series. Lori asked the board for two dates after the first of the year for these workshops. She and Katie will advertise on Face Book, the City website, snail mail, and email and Journal to get the word out. The first two Zoom workshops will be:
 - a. (Virtual) “Preservation Doesn’t Cost It Pays”
 - b. “Energy Efficiency”
- At that point, Lori will send out a survey monkey to see what people think. They will also know from this how many people to plan for the in-person workshops. They will be chosen from the results from the survey.
- Lori said that we could be as many people as we wanted on the Zoom meetings but the in-person workshops there will have to be we will be charged for the # of people that want to attend. Also, mitigation.
- V. Other
 - a. Lori asked how many of the board watched the RDA meeting and most the board had seen it. Lori asked if there were any thoughts. Several board members were very concerned about the parking as well as making sure the community has proper input in the decisions.
 - b. Jones Court – Lori told the board that the properties on Jones Court 5000,5002,5004, and 5006 S. have been taken off the list at the owner’s request. This means that they will most likely be demolished.
