Staff Presentation: Ken White, Operations Manager

Mr. White recognized Mr. Hoover, and had him introduce his wife Jenny, and his family.

Mr. White stated that Mr. Hoover has completed his four-year apprenticeship program in the Intermountain Power Superintendents Association / Utah Valley University. Mr. Hoover attended the program, doing his schooling, scholastical and mechanical skills to obtain his apprenticeship program to become a Journey Lineman. Mr. Hoover has also completed 8,000 hours of on the job training; his program affiliated with two utilities within the general area: Bountiful Power & Light, the other with Murray City Power.

Mr. White congratulated Mr. Hoover on his accomplishment, and added, as the Operations Manager for Murray Power, Mr. Hoover will be a very strong and valuable asset to the utility, as well as Murray City.

The Council members added their congratulations.

Mr. Brass added than Jenny Hoover is the one that makes the IPSA work; she has to babysit all of the apprenticeships, and if it weren't for her, there are a lot of lineman who wouldn't have made it through without her, and she is a big asset, and is very much appreciated.
