

Murray City Museum Deed of Gift to Collection

I as donor(s), give, transfer, and assign to Murray City the objects described below. I affirm that I own said object(s) and that to the best of my knowledge, I have good and complete right, title, and interest to give. It is understood that I waive all future rights or interests in said property for myself, heirs, distributees, and/or personal representatives. I acknowledge that Murray City may exercise all rights of ownership in and to said property, including but not limited to studying, cataloging, conserving, exhibiting, use for educational or reference purposes, reproducing, trading, transferring, or selling said item(s), or use in any way that the City deems proper unless otherwise stated. It is understood that I as the donor, may retain the original object and right to further distribute the object as long as it does not restrict the right of Murray City to use the object as described above. If the object(s) is determined surplus at any time in the future, Murray City will make a reasonable attempt to locate the donor before deaccessioning it.
